BECOMING PART OF A PROFESSIONAL TEAM ONLINE CLASS (2 clock hours)

CLASS DESCRIPTION: This training is designed for both providers who are starting a new job and/or entering the child care field. Participants will learn the importance of professional behavior on the job and how to develop positive relationships with co-workers.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: As a result of this training, participants will be able to:

- List ways to become acclimated to a new job and workplace
- Identify professional and unprofessional behavior
- Identify goals and roles for working as a team member

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING:

The evaluation of my strengths and weaknesses was helpful, as it is easier to evaluate yourself using an instrument such as this one. I will keep my results in mind and work on improving my performance.
– Karen C., GA

I loved the team roles list. It was neat to see how one individual could have more than one role.
– Kristy Z., ID

The questionnaire about my strengths and weaknesses was really helpful. I was surprised at the results but they were correct.
– Morgan P., MN

Articles were very helpful because it explained to you how to become a professional team worker. Everything was explained in tips.
– Borrero J., NJ
